Re: *Phillips-Van Heusen Corp. v. International Home Textiles, Inc.
and Salo Grosfeld, Case No. 07 Civ. 8169*

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

We represent defendants International Home Textiles, Inc. ("IHT") and Salo Grosfeld ("Defendants") in the above-captioned matter. As the Court is aware, the discovery cut-off and deadline for the taking of depositions in the above-referenced matter is Monday, April 14, 2008. On March 28, 2008, plaintiff Phillips-Van Heusen Corporation ("PVH") noticed the deposition of Mr. Grosfeld for April 12, 2008 and the deposition of an IHT representative "with knowledge of the circumstances detailed in the complaint and answer" for April 14, 2008. Mr. Grosfeld, who would serve as the witness for either deposition, is unavailable on those dates because he will be traveling out of the country on business from April 12 through April 18, 2008. Mr. Grosfeld also has business commitments in Florida, where he resides, on April 10 and 11, 2008 and is unavailable on those dates.

Given Mr. Grosfeld's unavailability on the noticed deposition dates, Defendants have agreed to make him available for a deposition in New York on April 22 or April 24, 2008, and PVH has consented to these dates. Defendants, with PVH's consent, therefore respectfully request a brief adjournment of the deposition and discovery deadlines for the sole purpose of the taking of Mr. Grosfeld's deposition on either April 22 or April 24, 2008.

The request to modify the existing schedule does not impact any other established deadlines and will not prejudice either party. PVH has reserved all its rights to seek appropriate
